

PRESS RELEASE – NOVEMBER 2020

Mint Insurance Brokers Ltd (Mint) are delighted to join the Appointed Representative Partnership Programme with James Hallam Limited (JHL) with effect from 23rd November 2020.

Mint is a new trading name for an independent broking team of 18 people based in Lime Street, a stone's throw from Lloyd's of London.

“We are delighted that Mint is joining the JHL Appointed Representative Partnership Programme and very much look forward to developing mutual business interests within the Group” said Brian Bendle, Managing Director of Mint Insurance Brokers Limited.

Roy Standish, JHL's Partnership Director, added “The Mint team are an excellent addition to our family of AR Partners alongside AIM, Blackford, Liability & General and Talisman. I am very much looking forward to working together.”

Paul Anscombe, CEO of JHL concluded “We are really excited to welcome the team on board. Like all of our existing Partners, they will add tremendous value to the Group in terms of their knowledge and market relationships and I know, in return, that we can help them in many ways.”
