

Press Release Feb 2022

James Hallam welcomes Trelawney Insurance Solutions to their Appointed Representative Partnership Programme.

James Hallam Limited (the insurance broking arm of Seventeen Group) are delighted to announce Trelawney Insurance Solutions ("TIS") as the latest addition to their Appointed Representative Partnership Programme. TIS will continue to provide bespoke solutions to a variety of clients in a number of business sectors from across the South West and beyond, accessing a wide range of insurance companies and Managing General Agencies as well as specialist insurance products via Lloyds of London.

TIS were formed in 2013 and have experienced substantial growth through the provision of excellent, efficient service and sound advice to contented clients.

Commenting on TIS's new direction, Managing Director, Richard Stevens, said " We are delighted to be in Partnership with James Hallam, one of the UK's leading independent Insurance brokers, as we know that they share our belief that insurance is not a service for which 'one size fits all' and who see the value of offering a personalised and professional service."

Paul Anscombe, Seventeen Group CEO, said "We are really delighted to welcome Richard and Trelawney Insurance Solutions on board as part of our expanding Partnership Programme. It was very clear from our earliest discussions with Richard that we are very closely aligned culturally and share an absolute focus on client service. Like all our Partners, TIS will undoubtedly add value to the broader Group and I know that in return we can support them in achieving their plans and aspirations."

End of Press Release

For further information contact:-

Jackie Knight Head of Marketing and Media
Tel –07824 486319
Email – jackie.knight@seventeengroup.co.uk